

DIRECTOR

Agree play to be performed and be 100% happy with the choice

Appoint audition panel, one of whom to be independent (ideally 3 persons in all) and set read through/audition dates

Run the auditions - Director has casting vote if necessary. Advise all auditionees of outcome

Decide on format of rehearsals and issue rehearsal schedule before rehearsals start (or at first rehearsal), in consultation with actors and their availability.

Attend planning meeting with Producer and Stage Manager before rehearsals start

Attend committee meetings throughout period of rehearsal - or agree with producer that they will attend

Meet regularly with Producer, Stage Manager and back stage team to explain requirements for set/costumes etc

Run rehearsals and turn your vision into reality on stage

Agree dates for technical/dress rehearsals with Producer and Stage Manager and actors.

At final dress rehearsal hand over running of show to Stage Manager

Be on hand throughout run of production to resolve artistic/performance issues as they arise

This document created: 9.8.15, updated: n/a